

Serra High's Annual Fiesta April 22-24

"Serra Frontier Fiesta" featuring a Western theme, will be staged for the fifteenth consecutive year at the Serra High school grounds, Compton and Van Ness Blvd. on April 22, 23 and 24.

Plans are under way to stock and staff 21 booths, six rides and a food counter featuring beef sandwiches.

Mike Orozco of Torrance is general chairman. He is being assisted by Jim Fitzharris, president of Serra's Booster Club, Chuck Sengir of Gardena and Mrs. Arthur Rinaldi of Hawthorne, president of the Serra Mothers Club.

Brother Joseph Kendel will serve as liaison between school administration and Fiesta groups.

Other chairmen will be Frank Wilson of Inglewood, serving as Mother's Club coordinator; Ed Hurley, booth staff chairman; Ed Greteman of Torrance, Fiesta Grounds chairman; Ed Garrity, finance and accounting; Angelo Ambrose, booth operations; and Lars A. Holt of Torrance, publicity chairman.

Prior to April 20, tickets for the rides will be sold at half price and may be secured from any Serra student or at the school office.

Serra will close its gala Fiesta on April 24 with entertainment for the whole family. The Mitchell Marionettes will be presented at a matinee and again in the evening.

Grand climax will be awarding of the major prizes, a Malibu Sports coupe, an RCA color television; a $100 vacation for two; and a $60 wardrobe certificate.

Proceeds from the Fiesta will be used for school improvements. Doors open on Friday from 6 to 11 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 11 p.m.

"Narcotics" Topic for Church Meet

Seaside Community Church will present a program on "Narcotics," Friday evening, March 25, at 8. An informative film, "Narcotics: A Challenge," narrated by Lowell Thomas, and a speaker from the Narcotics Education Foundation of America will comprise the program. The Narcotics Education Foundation, with the Rev. Paul E. Friedmann as Field Director, is a non-profit organization dedicated to the protection of youth, the safeguarding of communities from the narcotic traffic, and the solution of this problem.

Both youth and adults should find this program interesting and helpful. The public is cordially invited to attend, and dessert and coffee will be served. Seaside Community Church is located at 230th St. and Ocean Ave.

On Dean's List

Miss Rebecca Hebert, daughter of Mr. Chester J. Hebert of Torrance, has been named to the Dean's List at Marymount College for academic excellence during the fall '65 semester.

Adelines, Inc. Girls Off to Europe In Drive for Members

L. A. South Towns Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., is holding its semi-annual Membership Drive during the month of March. Sweet Adelines is an international organization, with over 16,000 members throughout the U. S. and Canada, whose only purpose for existence is to teach its members the art of singing the close four-part harmony of grandmothers' day known as "barbershop".

Being the current Regional Champions, L. A. South Towns has been a very busy chorus this past year, performing not only for community service projects, but presenting several package shows as well. They are currently in the process of preparing to host the upcoming Regional Quartet & Chorus Competition, which will be held April 29-30 and May 1 at the International Hotel.

Rehearsals are held each Monday, 8 p.m., at Live Oak Park Recreational Bldg., at 1800 Valley Dr., Manhattan Beach. All women over 18 years of age are invited to attend. For more information, Mrs. Fred Morrow may be called.
